

Hawaiian Yoga Retreat The Big Island, Hawaii August 5-10, 2011

Sarah Faircloth and Douglas Brooks offer a magical Yoga Retreat of asana, play, lecture, and leisure. Special guests Jim Bernaert, certified Anusara Yoga teacher, will teach a master class; Ana Nawahine-Kahopii, Hawaiian Cultural Kumu (teacher) will offer evenings of lei making, weaving, and kukui nui lantern making; and Hawaii will offer its exceptional beauty: swim with dolphins, cycling, surf, kayak, snorkel, idyllic beaches, delectable local exotic fruits, hikes on sacred lands. . . a dream retreat.

For a very special retreat, folding our coasts together, our host Kathryn Wiese has the beautiful idea to bring our sister southeast and Hawaii kulas together, with a sprinkling of star dust from other places around the country. We have a few Anusara yogis on the island who would like to extend their home to you, first come first serve, as well as other accommodation options.
